OLYMPIC WILL TEST U. S. LIQUOR LAW!

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE DIRECTORS FEEL HOPE ABOUT MOTOR SERVICE

Board Elects Mrs. Lee J. Rountree Director—Said To Be First Woman Director Known in Texas—Committee Reports on Allen Academy Bond Issue—President Bizzell Addresses Meeting on School Politics.

The announcement of an early prospect of motor car service between Bryan and College, the election of a woman, Mrs. Lee J. Rountree, to the board of directors, and the discussion of plans for the sale of a total of $35,000 in bonds for buildings at Allen Academy, featured the session of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce today. A. M. Waldrop, a member of the special committee on the obtaining of motor car service, reported that the committee had met with H. Booth, traffic manager and T. A. Hamilton, president of the I. & G. N. Railway, in conference over motor car service between Bryan and College. Mr. Waldrop reported that the result of the conference was highly satisfactory to the committee. Mr. Waldrop informed the board that Prof. F. C. Bolton is getting up necessary data for the committee, and that when this is finished the committee will go to Houston to confer with the two railway officials mentioned.

HASWELL REPORTS ON ALLEN ACADEMY BOND ISSUE
Mayor Tyler Haswell, chairman of the educational committee, reported that the committee had done nothing on the bond issue for Allen Academy since last month but expected to sell the remainder of the $25,000 of the original $35,000 at an early date. He suggested that an organization be formed to look after this matter and that when the organization was formed that the first payment on the bonds be called for.

T. K. Lawrence of the entertainment committee stated that the Daughters of the Confederacy reported that all plans were being perfected for the entertainment of Hood's Brigade on Wednesday and Thursday, June 27-28.

Beason Tells of Encampment.
County Agent C. L. Beason talked before the board about the boys' and girls' club encampment to be held at the Fin-Feather club Thursday and Friday, June 28-29. He asked the co-operation of the Chamber of Commerce in making this encampment a great success and particularly urged the members of the board of directors to attend. Miss Laura B. Roten, home demonstration agent, in addressing the meeting, expressed her thanks and appreciation to the board of directors for all they had done for her personally and for the girls in Brazos county in club work and asked the directors to attend the club encampment so that she could show them some of the work her girls are doing.

Bizzell Nominates Mrs. Rountree.
President W. B. Bizzell addressed the directors and expressed his appreciation to Senator R. S. Bowers of Caldwell for his splendid service rendered during the special session in helping A. & M. college secure its appropriation. He moved that the body instruct the secretary to write to Senator Bowers and express their appreciation for his services in behalf of the College. This motion was amended to include Representative John E. Quid of El Paso, who also was a champion of the College in the Legislature. President Gordon announced the vacancy on the board of directors occasioned by the death of Hon. Lee J. Rountree and asked that this be filled at the next regular meeting. Dr. Bizzell expressed his appreciation and gratitude for the service so ably rendered the College, Bryan, Brazos county and the Chamber of Commerce by Hon. Lee J. Rountree and said that he knew of no more fitting manner that the board could adopt to pay a deserved compliment to him than to elect his widow to serve out his unexpired term on the board. Dr. Bizzell made this in the form of a motion and it was seconded by A. M. Waldrop and unanimously carried. Secretary Eberstadt remarked later that so far as his knowledge goes, this is the first instance in Texas that a woman has been elected on the board of directors of a commercial organization. This action closed the business of the board, which then adjourned.

Those present at the meeting were: Dr. W. B. Bizzell, J. N. Dulaney, President J. M. Gordon, Mayor Tyler Haswell, J. Webb Howell, F. L. Henderson, M. L. Parker, John M. Lawrence, T. K. Lawrence, Oak McKenzie E. E. McAdams, Major L. L. McInnis, Dr. J. O. Morgan, A. M. Waldrop, M. E. Wallace and Secretary S. E. Eberstadt.

(By Associated Press)
ATLANTA, June 20.—Asa G. Candler, Sr., age 72, wealthy capitalist and founder of the Coca Cola company and Mrs. May Little Ragen, age 35, stenographer, were married here this morning before noon, it became known shortly before the time set for the ceremony. It was announced they would leave for Washington City on a short wedding tour. Interest in the wedding was increased by the fact that a half million breach of promise suit against Candler by Mrs. Onezima de Bouchl, of New Orleans, is pending in the local courts.

MRS. BRANDON CHOSEN DIRECTOR FOR BRYAN CITY CEMETERY ASSN.

At 10:30 o'clock Thursday morning, the directors of the Bryan Cemetery Association met in business session at the City National Bank. George A. Adams, president, presided, and in the absence of the secretary, Mrs. Albert Buchanan was appointed secretary pro tem. The following directors were present: George A. Adams, F. L. Cavitt, Mrs. John K. Parker, Mrs. John E. Astin, Mrs. G. M. Brandon, Mrs. Albert Buchanan. Minutes of previous meeting were read and approved after which, Fred L. Cavitt, treasurer, made the following report of the association's finances. Available Fund, balance, April 25, 1923, $269.99; Receipts, $46.00; Disbursements, $55.50; balance, June 14, 1923, $260.49. Maintenance Fund, balance April 25, 1923, $281.02; Receipts, $2.00; Disbursements, $31.55; balance, June 14, 1923, $251.47. Total balance, June 14, 1923, $511.96.

Rules to Be Made Public
Mrs. John E. Astin moved that, for the information of the public, the Grounds and Improvement committee, outline definite rules and regulations, governing the activity of the association as regarding annual care of lots, regular cleaning days, etc., and that same be published and posted at the cemetery. Carried. F. L. Cavitt moved that the Grounds and Improvement committee be given authority to expend the necessary funds, co-operating with City Manager McAdams and his force of workers, to give the entire cemetery a thorough cleaning at this time, before the weeds and grass, which have taken on such rapid growth, get too much start, and mature seed. Carried. The Grounds and Improvement committee, entrusted with the above mentioned special work is composed of Mrs. Mary Carr, Mrs. Edgar Covey, Mrs. Dona Carnes and F. L. Cavitt.

Mrs. Brandon Appointed
Attention was called to the fact, by the president, that the cemetery grounds have been divided into four equal parts, and a committee of women appointed to give special attention to each quarter. It is hoped that by this arrangement, the association will be enabled to accomplish a greater and more satisfactory work. The southeast quarter assigned to Mrs. Mary Carr and Mrs. Edgar Covey; the southwest to Mrs. G. M. Brandon and Mrs. Dona Carnes; the northeast to Mrs. John K. Parker and Mrs. John E. Astin; the northwest to Mrs. Mabel Castles and assistants.

It was the sense of the meeting, that steps be taken at once to provide an entrance gate for the colored people, nearer and more direct to their part of the cemetery, the gate-way to be placed on the main road, north of the present entrance. For the present, the colored people will be allowed to go through the main cemetery drive, as heretofore, and are asked to be quiet and reverent as they pass through.

As Mrs. John E. Astin is leaving soon for Europe to be away during the summer, the president appointed Mrs. G. M. Brandon to serve in her place on the Endowment and Membership committees.

LOCAL PARTY FISHES WITH SMALL SUCCESS

Joe Jackson and Elbert Spillers of College and Bill Hudspeth and Paul McGee of Bryan came in today from a camping trip at Blue Hole on Little Brazos. They were piloted by Robert McGee who went along to keep them out of harm's way yesterday afternoon. They had as their guest for a weenie roast Joe's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Jackson, and his little brothers Lee and Dug, and his little sister, Ima; Elbert's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Spillers and his little brothers Arnold and Leon; Mrs. Ruth Fox of Houston and son, Frank, who are here visiting the Spillers; Mrs. N. E. Mitchell of Union Hill and her daughters, Mary Bess and Catherine; and Paul's father, Joe McGee, and daughter, Miss Beattie Maud. The hosts were the butt of many jokes for having caught no fish and being found in a more or less disheveled condition when their guests arrived unexpectedly. They reported having killed an enormous number of small snakes in their efforts at night fishing. They also admit having made terrific onslaughts on the lemonade and ice water as well as the weenies which the guests were thoughtful enough to bring along for use in the absence of a fish supply.

R. M. Nall, Bruce Rolla, Mrs. Lamar Bethea, her son, Bill, and daughter, Edna Earl, have returned from an extended auto trip to Uvalde where they were guests of relatives.

Miss Ethel Evans has returned from a pleasant week-end visit with friends in Hearne.

ALL OF BRYAN AND BRAZOS COUNTY MOURN DEATH OF MR. E. G. JENKINS

Cut short in the prime and flush of his young manhood by that dread disease for which science has found no palliative, Edwin Gillespie Jenkins passed away at a Houston sanitarium at 6:45 Monday evening. As a vigorous young forest oak may be snapped at its base because it is too strong to bend like a willow before the storm of the elements, so was the life of this young man cut short just when he had attained the full strength of his manhood and looked out on a life of success and usefulness. The citizens of Bryan and all in Brazos county and elsewhere who knew the sterling worth, pleasing personality and bright prospects of Edwin Jenkins, join parents and family in sorrowing for this loss, which the community has sustained in his death.

Biographical Sketch.
Edward Gillespie Jenkins was the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Jenkins, a well known and much-respected couple of this community, and was born in Bryan February 21, 1895. He joined the Methodist church at the early age of nine and has since led an exemplary life. He graduated from Allen Academy in 1912. In 1916 he received the degree of bachelor of arts from Southwestern University, Georgetown, that time-honored Methodist institution whose graduates played so large a part in making of Texas and whose graduates rank so high today. Not content with one college degree, Mr. Jenkins next attended the Galveston branch of Texas University and in 1918 was granted the degree of Ph. D. in pharmacy. When he came out of college this second time his country was calling for its best manhood to come to its defense and to the defense of the rights of man. Answering this call, immediately upon his graduation, he entered the army in June, 1918. But fortunately for him and for the world, the conflict was rapidly drawing to its close and in January, 1919, he was honorably discharged.

Marries Nacogdoches Girl.
On March 19, 1919, two months following his discharge from service, he and Miss Ruth Lloyd of Nacogdoches were married. Shortly prior to this he had gone into the drug business, becoming the junior partner in the Jenkins Drug company, of Bryan. Mr. Jenkins was a member of the Masonic Lodge in Bryan. He was a member of the Phi Delta Theta Fraternity having been elected in his freshman year in Southwestern. He was a member of the Phi Delta Chi fraternity at Galveston. In November, 1920, he was elected a steward in the Methodist church, Bryan. He is survived by his wife and his 11-months-old daughter, Elizabeth, and parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Jenkins. Funeral services were held at 10

Reports coming out of Houston tell how he is guarding the purity of the milk supply of the city. Dr. Harrison has recently sent out a warning that the anthrax situation in the northern part of Harris county is becoming serious. The commissioners court has pledged him full support in fighting the disease in whatever way he sees fit. The malady is said to exist in Harris county in its most acute form and the commissioners have recently agreed to employ W. A. Knight, veterinarian, to aid Dr. Harrison.

"Idleness is the devil's workshop." Every man and woman should have an honest-to-goodness job and keep busy at it.

Last night at 12 o'clock the new speed limit law of 35 miles an hour on public highways went into effect. It is to be hoped this will be the maximum limit rather than the minimum.

The College-Bryan road is being repaired. This work came none too soon for if the road isn't maintained, with the amount of heavy traffic that goes over it, small breaks soon become holes that certainly make trouble for the traveling public.

There are hundreds of tourists passing through Bryan every day and we should do our part in giving them a good impression of our town. There isn't anything that impresses strangers with a town like well kept lawns and clean streets. Are you doing your part to keep them as they should be?

Building business and building cities must be upon a foundation of co-operation if we are to succeed. The united effort of all the citizens can make any town a bigger and better town. If you want Bryan to grow we must all work together for that one end. Boost your home town.

Your home newspaper does more for your town and community than any other institution in it and is therefore your greatest asset. A town without a live newspaper is not much of a town and very few outside of a ten mile radius know such a town is on the map. Stand behind your weekly newspaper for your own interests. It will pay you in many ways.—Franklin Texas

The gift of writing is a handle to every other accomplishment, yet hear practical men, who have no more brain or character than are necessary to accumulate money, sneer at "mere writing men" as they term them. However, they do not do this in writing, for when a man takes his pen in hand, he cannot help revealing what brain and personality he really possesses or does not possess.

Two veterans of the Texas press will be missed at the State Fair of 1923. In the passing off Lee J. Rountree of Bryan and W. A. Johnson of Memphis, the Texas exposition lost two mighty good friends and strong supporters. Mr. Johnson hadn't missed a Press Association meeting in a quarter century and his records as to attendance on the State Fair was equally as good. These men appreciated the powerful influence of the Fair in benefit to and development of Texas and never missed an opportunity to support it.—State Fair Foreword.

A federal chemist who has spent several months analyzing contraband liquors seized in a half dozen Southern States says that ninety per cent of the stuff was poisonous while forty per cent was of such a character that it would cause death within a short time. Very little non-poisonous liquor is finding its way into the channels of the bootlegger's trade. Stories of vast smuggling operations are exaggerated, the truth being that nearly all the liquor now in circulation is manufactured within the United States and contains poisonous concoctions of one sort or another.—Brownwood Bulletin.

BRYAN BEAUTY SPOTS

One of the attractive spots in Bryan now is the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Walker on Tabor avenue. Recently painted, nestling among handsome oak shade trees, with a velvet lawn, bordered with a bank of as handsome bright colored zenias as you want to see. It is an evident example of civic pride and beauty for others to follow.

Nothing gives more beneficial results and appearances to improve as well as an extension on life to property as a little paint. If you haven't a new house and don't need a new one then paint up the old one and help to make Bryan more attractive than she has ever been.

HONORS DESERVED

Senator Wood and Representative Quaid, chairmen of the Appropriations Committee of the senate and house have been and are two busy humans. It is easy to criticize the legislature or some individual member thereof, but if the average citizen will think just a minute what a big business enterprise this state is, forty millions of dollars about two years' operation, he will wonder how the big senator and the little representative, with their co-workers have done as well as they have. As to averdupois Senator Wood has perhaps no equal in the capitol while Representative Quaid is small of stature, but his brightness of mind makes up any short weight. These gentlemen have been diligent, careful and patient. They get five dollars every day for services worth ten times as much, and if there is any reward, political or otherwise in the future, let's give it to them.—Austin American.

WHAT IS THE COUNTY AGENT WORTH TO YOU?

There is a tale current among extension workers that one farmer of radical tendencies decided that the salary of the county agent in his county was a useless extravagance, and should be stricken out by the commissioners' court. Accordingly, he spent six days riding a mule from one end of the county to the other circulating a petition that the office of county agent be abolished in his county. But when he presented this petition to the court one of the commissioners took him to the court records, looked up the assessed valuation of his property, and after a few minutes figuring showed him that the county agent was costing him just 30c a year. A little figuring along these lines in Brazos county is interesting. There are about 25,000 persons in Brazos county, or 5,000 families. Three thousand of these families are on farms and get the benefit of what the entire 5,000 pays in taxes toward the support of the county agent and home demonstration agent. This amount totals $2,000 per year, we are informed. Dividing this $2,000 through by the total number of families in the county, we find that demonstration work costs the average family head just 40c a year, or 20c for each of the two persons employed. Will anyone say they are not worth it? Brazos county has a county agent and home demonstration agent much above the average. In fact, Brazos county is known all over Texas as the county of model rural communities. It has not been long since its reputation in this respect was not so good. The remarkable change in community spirit which has come about in Brazos county seems almost entirely due to the work of its two agents. The first step in rural progress in the mingling of the people in the several communities. This mingling with its attendant rural progress is certainly coming about in Brazos county. For that reason we say that our county agent and home demonstration agent are worth to us many times the amount of their salaries.

STOP COMPLAINING

Do you know, folks, that complaining is a kind of mental disease brought on by peering continuously through pessimistic glasses? It fixes itself upon us and we follow its lead until our whole existence is one continuous complaint. Nothing is right, nothing is done right, the present is all wrong and the future holds no rainbow of promise. We suffer so from this disease that when nothing else presents itself for complaint, we complain about ourselves to ourselves. In lieu of other listeners. The disease of complaining is also contagious. Coming in contact from day to day with one suffering from it we unconsciously contract it. Let a prominent business man contract the disease and start out complaining to other men about rotten business conditions and in a week's time the whole fabric of business has contracted the disease and a contagious gloom settles over the whole community. The cure is inoculation of a large dose of optimism that will react in the system to the extent, at least, of making the patient quit parading his gloomy, grouchy estimates of the present and foolish forecast of the future. If inoculation fails of its mission then isolation from the councils of the community should be the next step in the process of cure. Things are as they are, largely because of what men have done in the past to bring things about and the future depends largely upon what we are doing today to influence the future. A complaining present means a full fruition of present complaints in the future. Let's quit complaining and muzzle the complainer.—Mineral Wells Index.

WHEN IT RAINS IN BRAZOS

When first the rains begin to pour, refreshing dale and dell, I stood and watched it from my door, and blessed it as it fell; there'd been no rain for weary weeks; no swollen cloud developed leaks; drouth-stricken men had sent up shrieks for quite a little spell. It rained all day by starts and fits, it made the landscape wet; it made the greatest of all hits, it was the one best bet, but when again the morning broke, and rain was falling as I woke, I said, "This thing's beyond a joke;" it made me fume and fret. Next day the rain was falling still, as though to earn its pay, and torrents rolled down the hill, and chatted in the dripping dale, and ducks were swimming on the lawn and alligators and their spawn arrived, as though to stay. "This thing," I said, "I cannot bear; it breaks this heart of mine; a written protest I'll prepare, and ask my friends to sign. We'll let the weather-makers know they can't abuse their patrons so; they'll make the water cease its flow, and send us something fine." The rain still fell, still pattering worse; I grumbled and heaved; if only this old universe were run as I'd direct. I'm not consulted as to rain, or snow or drouth or hurricane; I make my protests all in vain, so what can we expect.—Walt Mason.

W. I. McCULLOCH GOES TO EASTERN MARKETS

W. I. McCulloch of the McCulloch-Gordon Company, is leaving today for the furniture markets in St. Louis, Chicago and Grand Rapids to make fall and winter purchases of furniture and floor coverings for his firm. Mr. McCulloch expects to be gone ten days or two weeks and he thinks the new crop prospects will justify the large and carefully chosen stock he contemplates buying, with the distinct object in view of giving their patrons the best values obtainable for the outlay.

LIVE MEN ADVERTISE

"Advertising is simply announcing to the world in an effective way where you are, what you are and what you have to offer in the way of human service or commodity. All live men are advertisers and the only man who should not advertise is the man who has nothing to offer to the world in the way of human service, and such a man is a dead one whether he knows it or not. Advertising is a legitimate and ethical proposition. Life is too short for you to hide yourself away, muffled in your own modesty, and let the world hunt you out. Even the dead advertise for on visiting a beautiful cemetery I noticed that on nearly every marble slab was given a list of the virtues, talents and beautiful qualities which the dead man was supposed to have carried in stock. This what you call non-productive advertising from an emotional standpoint. Personally I do not endorse it. Advertise while you are alive and send flowers to the man when he can appreciate them."—Elbert Hubbard.

MAKING A NEWSPAPER

Newspaper men in Washington, after deeply pondering, announce that "truth, decency, fairness" are the cardinal principles of journalism. All those things are important. But the cardinal principles of journalism are Fearlessness, energy, originality. Newspapers die out because proprietors or their heirs, softened by age or money, lose energy. They die because their owners lose courage or originality, or both. A newspaper cannot succeed in a big way unless its readers feel intense interest in making his paper. Energy, Courage, Originality made Bennett, Greeley, Dana, Pulitzer and Hearst. Mention an editor that the big interests know they can neither intimidate nor cajole, and you find energy, courage, originality.—Exchange.

IN MINERAL WELLS.

We prudently refrain from divulging the name of the young man who turned in the following effusion, based, no doubt, on a recent personal experience: "I stood on the porch one evening, while the sun was going down, and the June bug, bright in the starry night, flew merrily over the town. Oh, sweet were the gentle zephyrs, that blew from the balmy South. And red were the lips and sweet were the sips, that I took from her pretty mouth. Her tiny waist, encircled by my arm so strong and true. Said I 'whose duck are you, love?' 'Your'n' she murmured, 'and whose are you?' Oh, the hallowed hours of that evening! Oh, the cruel caprice of fate! Her father, unkind, stole up from behind and kicked me over the gate!"—Mineral Wells Index.

IN THE LONG AGO

(Taken from the files of the Houston Post twenty-five years ago.)
Bryan.—Dr. Charles H. Edge has sold his dental parlors to Dr. W. H. Lawrence and will probably remove to Houston.

The horticultural gardens at A. & M. College, under the direction of Dean E. J. Kyle, have this year grown some gorgeous blossoms. The gladiolas being especially beautiful, long stems with huge clusters in all the shades of the rainbow. As one visitor declared during A. & M. commencement, they were the prettiest ever grown in Texas. Correct!

The old-fashioned man who used to give a shy young maiden a copy of "St. Elmo" for a birthday present has a grandson who sends his sweetheart a pair of "first nationals" and it wouldn't surprise us if in another year that teddies will be regarded as perfectly proper gifts from young men to young women.—George Bailey in the Houston Post

"Lest We Forget" Wednesday and Thursday, June 28-29 are dates of the Hood's Texas Brigade Reunion in Bryan. Every citizen in Bryan should attend this meeting and have a share in making these old veterans happy.

CONATELLA WELL NO. 1 ATTRACTING VISITORS

It has been said that the well has been inspected regularly the last few days by outside interests. Saturday a representative of the Humble Oil Company visited the well and examined the samples of the formations and took samples of them with him. He reports that indications are good for bringing in an oil well. Many Bryan people visited the well on Sunday.

CONATELLA WELL NO. 1 WILL DRILL DEPTH OF 3500 AS REAL TEST

The wildcat test of the Bryan-Brazos Oil company, located four miles northwest of Bryan, on the Conatella farm, has reached a most interesting stage, and is being closely watched by the scouts of the major companies and other outside interests, it is reported by those in charge. At a depth of 1380 feet an oil and gas showing was picked up. However, the deeper sands, especially the Woodbine, is being sought, and nothing but gusher production will satisfy the promoters of this enterprise. Drilling deeper a grey lime was picked up, and after passing through this formation, a shale was encountered. Following the shale, another lime was entered, and underneath this lime, a 60-foot sand was passed through with some gas showing.

Prospect For Oil Good.
The well is now drilling at a depth of 2190 feet, and has encountered another small gas and oil showing, and the driller, Mr. Hunt has ordered the core barrels sent to the shop to be repaired and sharpened and has arranged to take samples of this new formation. The drill has proven beyond question that this well is sitting on an enclosed structure, and there is little question in the minds of the operators in charge that it will be made to produce oil in paying quantities. Operations at the well are in charge of F. E. Shelton, an expert operator, and the drilling is in charge of L. A. Hunt, the man who brought in the famous Golden Cycle well at Burkburnett, and who tamed the wild Wellington gasser. The management of the company naturally believe with the drilling in charge of two such experienced men, their interests will not suffer in the least. There is one thing certain: the officials of the company are determined that Bryan and Brazos County are going to get a real test to a depth of 3500 feet.

DR. GEORGE F. FREEMAN WRITES INTERESTINGLY OF INDIO CHINA

Dr. George F. Freeman of A. & M. College, who is in Indio China, as a member of the French commission, appointed by the French government to study the cotton situation there, writes very interestingly in a letter under date of May 6th, Phnom, Penh, Cambodia, Indio China, addressed to the late Hon. Lee J. Rountree and received in Bryan today:

"In answering steamer letters I have come to you. I want to thank you for kind thoughts expressed and assure you that I often think of the friends back in Texas and especially of you and your great fight for the economic and educational development of Texas. What you are now doing will live in Texas history. I consider that the work Texas is now beginning in conservation and reclamation will mark new era in her progress.

"This finds me busy at work with the French Commission. Many problems are to be solved before this can ever become a great cotton producing country. It is tropical in all of its characteristics being only twelve and a half degrees from the equator. It rains incessantly from May to November and the country is flooded from August to about November 1st. The cotton is planted in November and December and harvested in March and April. During these months it rains but little. Phnom Penh, where we are now making headquarters, is the capital of the Kingdom of Cambodia (Cambodge spelt French), which is now a French protectorate. It is located at the head of the delta of the Mekong river, and is a thriving river town of thirty or forty thousand people, including natives. The French are doing a great deal to develop this country, by building roads and railroads and giving the people a stable, efficient government. Politically it is probably the most quiet country in the world at this time. There is apparently no unrest, at all and everybody seems to be going and looking ahead.

"The climate is warm, but by taking life easy, and while in doors keeping pretty close company with an electric fan, one can be quite comfortable. I enjoy very much the great variety of tropical fruits which are now in season. So many of the best tropical fruits remain unknown to people of temperate climates on account of their poor shipping qualities. Among them I should mention the Sapota, the Mangsteere and the Durin. Mangoes here are cheaper than peaches at home and you should know the difference between bananas that are ripened on the trees and those which are gathered green to ripen in shipment."

STAG FIELD, CHICAGO, June 18.—Mule Frazier, Baylor university's star hurdler, failed to place in the finals in the high hurdles against the field of national celebrities today, his wonderful heat in the preliminaries slowing him up to a marked extent. In the 220 low hurdles, he finished fifth, scoring a point for Baylor. Tiny Keen, Texas Aggie star, won three points for his school by finishing third in the shot-put, while Jim Reese of Texas university won fourth place in the 880-yard run. Thames of Texas failed to qualify in the hurdle races, while Trout failed to place in the 2-mile race, and Dick McNatt, captain-elect of the 1924 University of Texas track and field team, did not show in his favorite event, the 440-yard dash. ## BUSINESS GIRLS IN CIRCLE MEETING ON THURSDAY EVENING

One of the worth-while organizations of Bryan is the Business Girls Circle of the First Presbyterian church. This organization is not limited however, to the members of the Presbyterian church, but any girl of any denomination is heartily taken into its folds, the only prerequisite for membership being that you must be a business woman. Meetings are held once a month in the evening for the study of the Bible, after which a social hour is enjoyed. The inviting shade of the big oak trees on the W. O. Gooch place, four miles east of Bryan lured the girls to hold their meeting Thursday evening out in the open. So at 6:30 a. m. they motored from Bryan with baskets filled with good "cats" and joyousness supreme. After supper was enjoyed in the glow of a big bonfire, the usual program was held with Miss Virginia West as leader for the topic "Women of the Bible." Each took part in the program answering to roll call with a verse from the Bible on nature. No more delightful and enjoyable meeting of the year has been held and all were enthusiastic to repeat the occasion. ## BENEDICTS DEFEAT SINGLE MEN IN GAME

(By C. S. Beckwith)

After several meetings, etc., the wives of nine men of the Free Baptist church reluctantly consented to let their bread-winners participate in a game of baseball with the single men of the same church. If the single men think that all the married men are but objects to be tossed at and stay at home at nights, their view in this matter was given a severe jolt, they can play baseball as well. This they clearly demonstrated last evening when they made the single men look like a bunch of boys. The game was exciting at all times and not until the last man was retired did the single men give in. Holmes who took the burden of dazzling the batters of the single men, was very effective and made several of them cut the atmosphere at every angle. Earle Tatum was the single men's selection to do the flinging, and although he had difficulty in finding the plate, pitched good enough ball to win any game. The game was full of feature plays. Rev. Rendleman made a spectacular catch of Cloud's high fly, if he had not the ball would have went down his throat. Morris Tatum, who delivers letters from door to door for Uncle Sam, made a wonderful effort to catch a ball but misjudged it about twenty feet. Parker Carroll who was just recently married, would make Heinie Groh ashamed of himself around third base. All in all it was a wonderful game and if the single men did not get their battery order all mixed up the result may have been different. Rev. J. J. Tatum handed the indicator and the way he acquitted himself calling balls and strikes was a pleasure to the fans, and if a player started anything one look from the Reverend Gentleman was sufficient. In passing we might state that the score was 5-4. Batteries: Married men, Holmes and Kellett; Single men, Tatum and Cloud; Umpire, J. J. Tatum.

Mrs. Moore was not in the car at the time of the accident but Mr. Platzer said when asked how the accident happened: "I just can't tell. The little boy was crossing Main street alone, between Sanders Bros. and John M. Sebesta's store and I was driving up Main street at about fifteen miles an hour, and ran into him." The child was hurried to Bryan hospital, where he was given medical aid and examination. Dr. W. H. Oliver, the attending physician states the child has a fractured thigh and rib. While painful not necessarily serious. The little fellow is reported as resting satisfactorily this morning.

BAPTISTS IN FAREWELL BANQUET HONOR DR. JOHN A. HELD, PASTOR

A banquet complimentary to the pastor, Dr. John A. Held, of the First Baptist church, was given by the membership of the church at the Green Parrot Tea Room Friday night. The banquet was given as a farewell and bon voyage to Dr. Held preceding his departure on June 24th to attend the World Baptist Conference at Stockholm, Sweden.

Trip As Planned.

Following the conference Dr. Held will tour the principal European countries, visit his relatives at Vienna, and then make an extensive tour of Egypt and the Holy Land. The trip, as planned will be wonderful, interesting, thrilling beyond description, and also comes as a compliment from the members of his congregation. As he expresses it, "it will be the realization of his life's dreams and the fruition of his hopes through all the years of the past." Once more he will have the blessed privilege of looking into the faces of loved ones, of gazing on the scenes of his childhood, the mountains and plains of the homeland, the bright blue waters of the Danube, and "every loved spot that memory knew." Then to Egypt the home of the ancient Pharaohs, the land where Joseph wrought his wonderful life-story. The country from which Moses and Joshua led the Children of Israel out through the wilderness, through the waters of the Red Sea and on past Pisah and Horeb and finally across the raging Jordan and into the Promised Land. Then to Jerusalem and all the country round about. The Mount of Olives, Bethany, Nazareth, Bethlehem, Gethsemane and the holy hills. He will also have the pleasure of traveling the ancient roadway that leads down from Jerusalem by ancient Jericho and on to the Dead Sea, passing on the way the scene where the story of the Good Samaritan was enacted and which has been an inspiration for helpfulness, kindness and ministering through all the intervening centuries.

D. L. Wilson Toastmaster

MUDVILLE PIE-EATING CONTEST FURNISHES COMMUNITY MUCH FUN

The Mudville boys' and girls' club held one of its most interesting meetings last Saturday night, songs, club yells, contests, good talks, etc., featuring the splendid program.

At the appointed hour, president Tony Denena, called the house to order and after a few brief remarks turned the meeting over to County Agent Beason and Home Demonstration Agent Miss Laura B. Roten, the former comparing two stalks of corn, showing variation in type, proper and improper position of ears on stalk, and pointing to the fact that last year's corn crop might have been increased by 300,000,000 bushels, if each farmer who raised corn had grown each ear only one inch longer, a thing possible by better seed selection, better cultivation, and proper fertilization. Miss Roten exhibited to the audience some of the fine sewing which had been done by the Mudville club girls.

Have Novel Contest.

Four boys and four girls engaged in a banana eating contest, a girl again proving an easy winner over the boys in an eating contest. Some thought that "grub" is too high for such "speed" to be kept up long at a time, but the boys are anxious to try the speed of the alimentary "pipe line" in a pie eating contest at the next regular meeting, Saturday night, July 21.

Attention was called to the club encampment on June 28-29, and the advantages offered Brazos county boys and girls at the Short Course, July 22-28.

The Mudville people are beginning to feel proud of the progress of their boys and girls in their club work, and the prediction is made that the work will not only mean a better agriculture, but also a happier and better people as well. Those attending the meeting from Bryan were: J. D. Martin, chairman, agricultural committee, Chamber of Commerce; Home Demonstration Agent Miss Laura B. Roten, and County Agent Beason and daughter, Elliott.

E. G. JENKINS, YOUNG BUSINESS MAN CALLED BY DEATH IN HOUSTON

(From Tuesday's Daily) While not unexpected, yet the entire community was shocked when the news came Monday from Houston that E. G. Jenkins had died at 6:45 o'clock that afternoon. Some months ago Edwin went to Houston for medical treatment in search of relief from an unfortunate malady. At one time some hope was held out that he might be cured but in spite of medical skill, careful nursing and all that loving care could do, he passed away as was above stated. The remains were brought to Bryan on the noon H. & T. C. train today and are now at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Jenkins. ## BRAZOS COUNTY BOYS AND GIRLS CLUB DEPARTMENT

Club Notes and Farm News by County Agent C. L. Beason

District Agent J. E. Standford, S. C. Evans, Assistant State Agent in charge of Boys' club work, Extension Service, and County Agent Beason, went to Franklin Saturday to attend the Robertson County Club meet called by County Agent R. B. Ewing. It was a great day for the boys and girls of Robertson county, and well might they feel proud of membership in an organization which has for its purpose the training of the head, hand, heart and health, as well as trying to bring about a better agriculture. The mayor of Franklin made the address of welcome, which was followed by a response from Vernon Wheelless, a club member of the Eastern community. Other talks were made by District Agent Standford, who praised the boys and girls for the splendid work they were doing for their homes, their county and their state. County Agent Beason made the principal address of the day, re-affirming his faith in the good work being done by the club members throughout the county and pledging his support in their every effort to make a greater and more prosperous county. He called attention to the good work which had been done by their former home demonstration agent, Miss Ima Cook (a Brazos county girl), and said her work would live for many years to come. Judge Reed asked the club members to help him create sentiment in favor of the constitutional amendment soon to be voted on providing for the State and National government to take over certain road work of the county, which would relieve the county of a great burden of taxation and thus make it possible to lend aid in building other good roads in the county. By way of parenthesis let us say that with all the explanation and the benefits that would accrue, there will be those who will be "agin'er" when the time comes to cast a vote. Mr. Evans gave instructions in judging corn, and conducted a stock judging contest in which lively interest was shown, the object of the contest being, primarily, to select the strongest team to be sent to the Short Course. The Franklin Chamber of Commerce took advantage of the occasion and showed its interest in club work by giving all the club members a free ticket to the best picture show that could be provided for the day. Brother Ewing, your club meet was a great success. Come to see us, June 28-29.

Great Meeting at Mudville.

Those who failed to attend the Mudville club meeting Saturday night missed a great treat, as might be inferred from the following letter: "Steele's Store, Texas, June 17, 1923. Mr. C. L. Beason, Bryan, Texas. Dear Sir: Will you please send me a copy of the song, 'I Am a Texas Star?' I surely would like to learn it. Mr. Beason, I certainly enjoyed our club meeting last night. With best regards, I am, Yours truly, Johnnie Perrone, Mudville Club Member."

Turned Under Peas.

J. M. Cadle, a farmer living on route 6 out of Franklin, planted some of his land last year to corn and peas, turning the peas and corn stalks under after gathering corn, with the result that the cotton planted on that land this year is far ahead of that of his neighbors, stated Mr. Cadle at the Robertson county club meet last Saturday. Do you still need more evidence to convince you of the importance of planting legumes on your land?

WELLBORN COMMUNITY CLUB MEETING FRIDAY SPLENDID SUCCESS

The meeting at Wellborn last Friday night was, in point of interest, one of the most important the community club has yet held. The following new officers, elected at the previous meeting, assumed their new duties, reflecting credit not only on themselves but also on those who selected them for the several responsible positions: Lallie Barron, president; J. L. Vance, vice-president; Miss Lela Maud Norwood, secretary; program committee, Mrs. J. L. Vance, and Mrs. Guy Neely. The community was commended for its wisdom as shown in selecting among the new officers several young people, those who are looking to the future for nobler achievements in human endeavor; young people who are willing to give of their time and thought in an effort to place their community apace or in the forefront of the programs of this age. Some one suggested that president Barron make his inaugural address at the next regular meeting outlining the work he would like to see put over, and for which work he would need the cooperation of the entire community.

Splendid Talks Given.

I. M. Cook of Steep Hollow, being observed in the audience, was asked to address the meeting. He spoke briefly on the many advantages coming to a people through community center work, citing, as example, the interesting and most helpful literary societies conducted at Steep Hollow in by-gone years. He said that our efforts are, too often, in the wrong direction, that instead of boosting that which is intended for our own good we enlist on the side of the knocker and thus help keep away many good things from our very door.

Secretary S. E. Eberstadt of the Bryan Chamber of Commerce, and who is to be generalissimo on "Brazos County Day", spoke of the cooperation the Chamber of Commerce hopes to give in the terracing campaign now being planned for Brazos county this fall, and he also referred to the proposed plan of the Bryan Rotary club to visit communities wherever there was an opportunity afforded to show the people real mission of service back of the Rotary. Mrs. L. M. Cook told about the Bryan Woman's club giving a Brazos county young lady a scholarship to the Short Course some years ago with the result that the young lady was inspired to continue her search for knowledge till now she is not only an honor to herself but also a blessing to her community, county and state.

Miss Roten, home demonstration agent, called attention to the boys' and girls' encampment on June 28-29. The meeting was enlivened by splendid music and some "fousing boards". The woman's club, in "wasboard" costumes, served sandwiches and ice tea to an appreciative and hence, Miss Eugenia Suber won first place in costume contest. Miss Annie Laura Cook pleased the audience with a splendid recitation. Wellborn Progressive Community Club, that was a good meeting. Do it again.

Several days ago Percy Tardy, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Tardy, had the misfortune to injure the ankle of his left leg with a baseball bat while at play. Frequent Headaches
"I suffered with chronic constipation that would bring on very severe headaches," says Mrs. Stephen H. Kincer, of R. F. D. 1, Cripple Creek, Va. "I tried different medicines and did not get relief. The headaches became very frequent. I heard of and took it for a headache, and the relief was very quick, and it was so long before I had another headache. Now I just keep the Black-Draught, and don't let myself get in that condition."
Theford's Black-Draught (purely vegetable) has been found to relieve constipation, and by stimulating the action of the liver, when it is torpid, helps to drive many poisons out of your system. Biliousness, indigestion, headache, and similar troubles are often relieved in this way. It is the natural way. Be natural! Try Black-Draught.

BRYAN BAYLOR CLUB HOLD ENTHUSIASTIC JUNE DAY MEETING

The June meeting of the Bryan Baylor Club held at the home of Mrs. H. O. Boatwright was one of interest and enthusiasm. A goodly number of present, past and future Baylor girls present, business of much importance to that institution was freely discussed. It was the sense of the meeting that the Baylor ex-students of Bryan shall do a noble part in assisting to raise the endowment funds now being sought, and a committee, with Mrs. A. S. McSwain as chairman was appointed by the chair. This committee has already held a meeting for organization of effort, and has planned as the first step in raising funds a minstrel, to be given by home talent at an early date, probably during the month of June. Another important committee, to be known as the Baylor student soliciting committee, was appointed with Miss Frances Wallace chairman, and composed of Misses Dorothy Ertle, Helen Kerr Parks, Louise Pipkin, Martha Suber, Lida Belle Pipkin, Elizabeth Held, Mina Terry, Helen Moore. The Bryan Baylor Club is undertaking a great work for the summer months.
